

OVERVIEW

You know that successful principal supervision requires new ways of supporting principals in a partnership role — leading by teaching and learning in an atmosphere of mutual accountability. You want to see principal performance improve across your system but find it challenging to lead for that.

The Principal Supervisor Academy will give you a leadership strategy that’s centered on supporting instructional leadership growth for all your school leaders.

YEARLONG

OFFSITE &
ONSITE

VIRTUAL OR ONSITE
WORKSHOPS

VIRTUAL COACHING

My leadership practice has changed as a result of the Principal Supervisor Academy. I now have the tools to focus specifically on the things that matter the most in affecting educational outcomes.

— Vickie Poe, Assistant Superintendent
Dallas County School District, Selma, AL

WHAT YOU’LL GAIN

- Students say that they are engaged, challenged and supported. Students demonstrate improvements in learning
- Teachers say that they are supported. Teachers are improving their instructional practices
- Leaders are able to use a teaching and coaching approach for improving principal performance

WHO IT’S FOR

Our Principal Supervisor Academy is for all central office leaders who support principals’ development as instructional leaders.

HOW IT WORKS

Academy participants will work from problems of practice, use cycles of inquiry, learn from case studies, and utilize virtual professional learning communities as well as virtual individual coaching to develop their skills. Topics include:

STRUCTURES AND ROUTINES FOR PERFORMANCE IMPROVEMENT	HOW TO MONITOR YOUR OWN DEVELOPMENT AS A PRINCIPAL SUPERVISOR	BUILDING AND PROTECTING CALENDARS
HOW TO COMMUNICATE CLEARLY AND CONTINUALLY	ASSESSING AND GATHERING EVIDENCE TO SUPPORT PRINCIPAL PROGRESS	HOW TO DEVELOP EFFECTIVE 1:1 WORK WITH PRINCIPALS

The content for this academy is based on the National Principal Supervisor Standards, the latest research on adult learning and leadership development from Wallace Foundation and promising practices from districts across the country.